CASE NO. 1:03-cv-00431-2

ORDER

JAMES S. GWIN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT JUDGE:

Stanley Cornell serves a life sentence for drug-trafficking crimes. Now, Cornell asks the Court for a second time for a sentence reduction under 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A). The United States opposes. Because the parties have not filed current Cornell information, the Court ORDERS Cornell to supplement his motion.

Cornell is ordered to submit a current Cornell prison-discipline record,¹ the Cornell PATTERN score calculation,² a current Cornell progress report or other record showing Cornell education and rehabilitation,³ and more information about Cornell's release plan, including any Cornell lawful-employment plan.⁴

Once Cornell files the supplemental information and any additional briefing, the government must reply within 14 days.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
